Jeremy G. Fair

Class of 1969

Jeremy Fair is a private investor focused primarily on private equity and real estate. He also serves on a variety of community service boards and acts as treasurer and a board member of Martin General Hospital.

From 2004 to 2007, he was the chief operating officer of The California Academy of Sciences during the $500 million rebuilding of the Academy's facilities in San Francisco's Golden Gate Park. Those facilities house a natural history museum, planetarium, rain forest and extensive research activities.

Fair retired in 2002 as group executive vice president and head of Bank of America's U.S. and Canada Group. The group was responsible for the bank's corporate and investment banking clients and products. Fair was a member of the bank's senior management council, and served as a member of the Credit Policy and Asset and Liability committees.

After serving in the Air Force as a captain, Fair joined the bank in 1972 in San Francisco in the National Division. He moved to London in 1982 to manage the bank's London branch and later the operations in Europe and Africa. He returned to the U.S. in 1989 and served in various assignments in San Francisco, Los Angeles and Chicago as the bank expanded during that period.
