

2006

Philip A. Garcia

Class of 1978

Philip Garcia retired from the Erie Insurance Group in 2009 after 28 years with the company, where he was executive vice president and chief financial officer. Currently, Garcia is on the board of Amersafe Inc., a publicly held high-hazard workers' compensation insurer. He has served on the boards of Donegal Group Inc., a property casualty insurer, and Railpower Technologies Corporation, a manufacturer of hybrid locomotives.

He also served on the boards of Hamot Health System, the Warner Theater Preservation Trust, the Erie Arts Council and the Bayfront Eastside Task Force. He also spent a term as a trustee of Grove City College from 2006 to 2008.

Additional degrees: CPA

