

1993

Robb M. Jones

Class of 1975

Robb Jones, in 1991, was chosen from more than 500 candidates to serve as chief of staff to Chief Justice William Rehnquist of the United States Supreme Court. His responsibilities included working with Congress and the Executive Branch on items concerning the effective administration of justice.

Following his Supreme Court service, he ran education programs for federal judges at the Federal Judicial Center. Since 1997 he has been senior vice-president and general counsel at United Educators, a reciprocal risk retention group owned by over 1200 colleges, universities and K-12 schools.

Jones represented Grove City College as co-counsel during the landmark Supreme Court case of 1984, Grove City College v. T.H. Bell, Secretary of Education. He joined the Grove City College Board of Trustees in 2010.

Additional degrees: Master's degree, University of Virginia; J.D., University of Virginia