

Thomas E. Langmyer

Class of 1983

Thomas Langmyer is vice president and general manager of WTMJ and WLWK Radio in Milwaukee, Wisc., and corporate vice president of news and talk programming for Journal Broadcast Group's stations across the United States. He is also president of The BlueWater Group, which specializes in business consulting for broadcast companies.

Previously, Langmyer served as vice president and general manager for Tribune Company's WGN Radio in Chicago. He also worked for CBS Radio as vice president and general manager of KMOX Radio in St. Louis and corporate vice president for CBS Radio's News/Talk Stations Group. Earlier in his career, he was program director for WSYR/WYYY in Syracuse. He started his career at WBEN and at WGR in Buffalo, N.Y., where he served in a number of roles, including program manager and air traffic pilot/reporter.

In 2010, Langmyer published Lake Erie: History & Views, a book chronicling the geology, early inhabitants, European discovery, settlement, industry and growth of the cities and towns around Lake Erie.

A native of Buffalo, Langmyer is active in the broadcasting industry and the community. He has been honored numerous times for his work, including General Manager of the Year by Radio & Records and The Good Samaritan Award by the Archdiocese of Saint Louis.

