

William J. Nutt

Class of 1967

After graduation, William J. Nutt served as law clerk to the Hon. Robert P. Anderson at the United States Court of Appeals for the Second Circuit. As president of the Boston Company, an international financial services firm, he represented his company as Mellon Bank announced its intention to acquire it from Shearson Lehman Brothers (a subsidiary of American Express).

Later retained by TA Associates, one of the nation's largest private equity investment partnerships, Nutt advised the firm on investments in the money management industry and other selected sectors of the financial services industry.
