

Kenneth E. Smith

Class of 1984

Following his Grove City College graduation, Ken Smith joined H.B. Maynard and Company, a Pittsburgh-based workforce management and consulting company. In 2001, he was elected president of the company.

Smith is actively involved in a number of professional organizations including the The Institute of Industrial Engineers and serves on several boards including the Coalition of Christian Outreach, Jubilee Christian School and Family Guidance, all in Pittsburgh.

He also serves on the College's Entrepreneurship Advisory Council.

Since receiving the award, Smith led the sale and transition of Maynard to Accenture in 2007, currently serves as president of Etcetera Edutainment, one of several start-up companies with which he is involved, and is a very active board member for several businesses and ministries in the Pittsburgh area.
